

Capital for Markets becomes Capital Market Coach for Vienna Stock Exchange

Munich, July 17th 2017

Munich based Investment Boutique Capital for Markets GmbH is pleased to announce its nomination as “Capital Market Coach” for Vienna Stock Exchange. Thereby, Capital for Markets becomes the 43th Capital Market Coach of the Austrian market place.

The Capital Market Coach provides support to small and medium-sized companies preparing for a listing in the mid market segment. The CMC supports the company not only during the IPO process, but also provides consulting for a period of one year as of the time the shares start trading on the mid market. The aim is to make it easier for smaller and medium-sized companies to meet the ongoing listing obligations in accordance with the market regulations. The following skills and achievements are condition for the nomination as Capital Market Coach of Vienna Stock Exchange:

- Deep industry knowledge and experience regarding capital markets, corporate finance and company valuation
- References (Track record regarding already successfully executed IPOs)
- Research facility
- Ability and intention to support its clients on an ongoing basis

Jörn Follmer, Managing Director of Capital for Markets GmbH comments on the Capital Market Coach status that had been negotiated by him: „The nomination as Capital Market Coach of Vienna Stock Exchange is another milestone in the history of Capital for Markets GmbH that stresses our longstanding, pan-European Capital Markets experience.“

Klaus Niemeyer, Managing Director of Capital for Markets GmbH: „To offer our clients the best-possible trading segment for their going public, we want to reach the most complete coverage of all 28 European stock exchanges. Today, we made another important step towards this direction.“
